Welcome back to Keas, Cubs, Scouts and Ventures for a new term in scouting. Spring is definitely in the air as we start the third term.

We start this term with the reinstatement of Tuesday night Cubs – many thanks to Janine Williams and Roddy Finlayson for leading this group. Tuesday Cubs was the original Cub night so it is good to see a new pack restarting their scouting journey.

Congratulations to two of our senior scouts, Corbyn Tock and Hilary Clarke, who attended the Cossgrove Gold training course and passed with flying colours.

We welcome all our new leaders and those going through the process of becoming a leader. Six of our leaders attended an Initial training weekend in Cambridge the weekend of the 18th August.

Monday Keas:

John Cuttance

Andrea Tock is going through the process of becoming a Kea leader

Monday Cubs:

Laura Russell

Tuesday Cubs:

Roddy Finlayson

Lisa MacInnes is going through the process of becoming a Cub leader

Scouts:

Gordon Vandy is going through the process of becoming a Scout Leader

Rachel Clarke has been invested as an associate leader and is helping with Scouts

The Venturers are looking for another leader / support person. If this sounds like you or you know of anyone that could be interested please let David and Michelle Mann know (mamann@xtra.co.nz)

The committee are always looking for more members to help out our group. We would love for you to join us - no experience is needed, just a positive can-do attitude. Everyone is welcome. Contact Rachel (rachel@clarke.gen.nz) for further details.

Two important roles that need filling are the Membership Officer role and the Grants role. Filling these roles will help us run the group more financially effectively:

No Grants => Fees will go up to cover costs such as leader training
